General Lowell C. Shepherd, Jr., USMC
Chairman
Inter-American Defense Board
Washington, D. C.

Dear Gen:

STAT
Thank you for your letter of 2 April 1958 inquiring about possible opportunities for employment with this Agency for [redacted] upon his retirement.

STAT

Unfortunately, the situation here is not at all encouraging.
As you may know, the Central Intelligence Agency is authorized by Congress to employ only a very limited number of retired military officers and the positions provided for this purpose are now either filled or firmly committed for the next year. Therefore, I regret that we would not be able to employ [redacted] at this time.

STAT
Your interest in bringing this matter to our attention is deeply appreciated, and I am sorry the reply cannot be more favorable.
Nevertheless, [redacted] may wish to make application so that should the situation change in the future, we could get in touch with him.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Signed

Allen W. Dulles
